

Ignite Team Passion!

What does it REALLY take to inspire, motivate and engage your team – especially during difficult times? Our sector colleagues are invited to join in this day of learning designed especially for non-profit team leaders.

With a healthy dose of humour, award-winning Guest Speaker Michael Kerr's "Inspiring Leadership" presentation provides powerful and easy-to-implement tools to create a fulfilling and rewarding workplace culture where your employees and volunteers look forward to investing their time, talent and energy.

Registration Information

Where: InterContinental Hotel Yorkville
220 Bloor St W, Toronto, ON

When: May 4, 2017 / 9:30am-1:30pm
Registration deadline: April 21

How: Register online:
FamilyServiceOntario.org/members

Cost: $149 - includes inspiring leadership presentation, interactive discussion and networking lunch

Info: Klodia Guma at 416-877-1308 or fso@familyserviceontario.org

FAMILY SERVICE ONTARIO

Strong families, strong Ontario

FSO represents not-for-profit member agencies across the province that serve more than 250,000 individuals, couples and families in communities and workplaces every year. We build capacity and provide a collaborative voice and are especially proud of our strong government-relations program.

Meet our speaker!

Michael Kerr

The Workplace Energizer

Searching for the key to team engagement? This year’s FSO Professional Development Day 2017 provides the leadership tools you’ll need to build a positive, rewarding WANT-TO workplace culture that engages your staff and board, fosters teamwork and innovation, and delivers better-than-ever results!

We’re proud to welcome award-winning speaker Michael Kerr, whose “Inspiring Leadership” presentation is designed to help non-profit team leaders create the workplace of their dreams. An interactive discussion with Mr. Kerr will follow.

You’ll learn:

- how to inspire a collective vision.
- the truth about those workplace values you value so much.
- why great leaders don’t have to speak like Winston Churchill (sure it’d be nice, but it’s not necessary).
- why great leaders ask a lot of leading questions.
- why your sense of humour may be your best secret weapon.
- the obvious and not-so-obvious ways we recognize employees.
- the real truth about workplace motivators and de-motivators.
- how (and why!) to get to know your employees.
- how goal setting, workload, work-life balance, and the meaning of life impact inspiring leadership.
- if you’re part of the problem or part of the solution.

Join the Conversation!

Family Service Ontario collaborates with our sector partners to build internal agency capacity, and to lobby government for increased funding and improved policy and legislation. We invite you to attend FSO Professional Development Day 2017 to learn and to network with FSO members – your sector partners!

Michael Kerr is an award-winning international business speaker, trainer, and bestselling author.

He has delivered his captivating presentations and workshops to thousands of audiences around the world. He offers relevant, practical ideas delivered with a memorable brand of clean, high-energy humour.

“Michael Kerr is awesome! I obtained enough electricity to shock my hospital into shape.”

~ Capital Health Region

“Just what we needed! His topic was delivered with the right blend of ‘important corporate message’ and humour! Michael was captivating, enlightening, and inspiring.”

~ Durham College

Strong families, strong Ontario