

Wednesday May 31, 2017

Sheraton Toronto Centre, 123 Queen St W, Mezzanine Level, Ontario

Trillium Primary Health Care Research Day

Overview: This event is an opportunity to share your primary health care relevant research in a welcoming and constructive atmosphere. The conference will expose participants to the latest in peer-reviewed primary health care research in Ontario. Hosted by the INSPIRE-PHC Program.

Please join us!

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

DEADLINE:

May 1, 2017

REGISTRATION DEADLINE:

May 19, 2017

Who Should Attend?

- Ontario researchers interested in primary health care (PHC) and grad students/residents
- Decision-makers/clinicians practicing in PHC
- Policy-makers in the area of PHC or health system integration
- Patients/Community Members interested in PHC research

Registration Rates

$90 - Non-presenting attendee

$75 - Presenting attendee

$50 - Non-presenting student

Free - Presenting (lead) student or patient/community member presenter

Contact Information: Dr. Moira Stewart (Lead)
Staff: Leslie Meredith or Sandi Richard, Phone: 519-661-2111 x22012 or x22136 Email: phcs@uwo.ca

For more information please visit:

www.trilliumresearchday.com

Featuring

Distinguished Lecture: The Aging, Community and Health Research Unit: Key Messages related to Community-Based Primary Health Care Interventions (Drs. Maureen Markle-Reid and Jenny Ploeg, McMaster University)

Keynote Address: A panel with policy, researcher, clinician and patient representation will discuss using EMR data for quality and research.

Workshops 1) patient engagement in Patient-Oriented Research (POR) and 2) primary care measures at the sub-region level with facilitation from a research and policy perspective

As well there will be up to 15 poster and 24 oral presentations on recent/ongoing research in the Primary Health Care field.

Important Information

- ◆ This event is an important forum for exchanging ideas and networking with PHC researchers from multiple disciplines across Ontario.
- ◆ Research can be 'in progress'.
- ◆ If you have had a patient or community member involved in your research, please consider including them as a co-presenter. It is important to hear their experience with the process first hand.
- ◆ Family Medicine residents & graduate students from relevant PHC disciplines encouraged to attend.
- ◆ Limited travel grants are available for PRESENTING students/residents/patients/community members.
- ◆ One-day event from 9 am to 4 pm