

An Affect Education Model for Caregivers Managing Behavioural and Psychological Symptoms of Dementia: A Study of Feasibility

Presented by:

Ken Schwartz, MD, FRCPC

Robert Madan, MD, FRCPC

Rosalind Sham, M.Sc.

Sandra Gardner, Ph.D.

Learning Objectives:

- 1. To learn about the Affect Education Model Approach
- 2. To learn about the study in which the Affect Education Model was taught to staff in 2 LTC Homes.
- 3. To learn and discuss about the applicability of the Affect Education Model with family caregivers

Friday, November 11, 2016

Noon – 1 pm EST

Classroom ABC

Also available via Telehealth & Webcast.

To Participate Through Telehealth:

Provide your Telehealth Coordinator TSM # 59156754 to confirm your site

To Participate by Live Webcast:

Search for Baycrest or TSM # 59156754 under live “public” events on <http://webcast.otn.ca>

Accredited (group learning) as defined by the Maintenance of Certification Program of the RCPS.

*Rounds are restricted to healthcare professionals in active practice, students, and Baycrest staff.