

BETTER Prevention Practitioner Training

The purpose of the 2 day workshop is to provide healthcare professionals with enhanced skills in prevention and screening of chronic disease through hands-on training using role playing and patient cases. The program is evidence-based and specifically designed for individuals within the primary care setting.

Interactive learning

Primary prevention & screening

Evidence based

Improve the health of your patients

Cost: Free!

Requirements: Trainees should be actively practicing within a primary care setting or be linked with primary care

Includes: 2 days of training, access to the BETTER tools, and training materials

To register, contact margaret.harder@wchospital.ca

Upcoming session: November 13th and 14th

Location: Women's College Hospital in Toronto, ON

Time: 9:00 AM - 4:00 PM each day

www.better-program.ca