

Nomination
Public health and primary care
City of Lakes Family Health Team
The Value of Primary Care Data During COVID-19

Anonymized COVID-19 screening data was shared with the local public health unit on a weekly basis to help extend data available on population health during this pandemic. The data helps to monitor incidence of respiratory symptoms and early warning signs of COVID-19 spread in our community especially as we move into Phase 2 and 3.